LETTER TO BOTH FREE AND PAID MEMBERS OF FOCUSED COMPOUNDING

Focused Compounding in 2019

This email is going out both to Focused Compounding members and to people who are on the weekly memo email list.

We are making some changes to Focused Compounding for 2019.

If you are on the weekly memo list, you are now a “free member” of Focused Compounding. This means you will have access to articles on Focused Compounding written by people other than me. You won’t have access to the articles I write. You will, however, get my weekly memo. This memo will now include links to any articles you do have access to.

For paid members of Focused Compounding, I will – starting next Monday – be sending you a weekly email as well. This email will have links to the new content that went up that week that you have access to. It will also have a “weekly stock watchlist”. This is a list of the next 10-12 stocks I plan to write-up on the site.

So, each Monday – starting Monday, January 7th, 2019 – you can expect...

FREE MEMBERS

- 1) A weekly memo from me on a general investing topic
- 2) A list of links to any new content you have access to

PAID MEMBERS

- 1) A weekly watchlist of the next 10-12 stocks I plan to write-up on the site
- 2) A list of links to any new content you have access to

Free members will only have access to articles I don’t write. I can’t tell you any specific plans for what free content we are planning in 2019.

However, paid members will have access to the articles I write. I can tell you what content we plan for you in 2019. I’ll be writing one stock write-up a week. It will alternate – as much as possible – between one brand new “initial interest post” and one re-visit of a previous idea.

The weekly watchlist will give you an idea of what the order of the next 10-12 write-ups from me would be if stock prices, etc. didn’t change. In reality, that watchlist will change all the time as stock prices, business results, etc. of the 10-12 stocks on it change. Basically, the watchlist will be constantly changing. And I will be constantly working my way through that watchlist.

Expect the first weekly write-up, the first stock watchlist, and the first weekly memo of 2019 next Monday (the 7th).

Thanks for being a member.
